His son John, born 1 Jun 1783 in Monongahela, Washington Co, PA, married Jane Work and they had eight children, all born in Washington Co. between 1810 and about 1820. Their seventh child, Alexander, married Nancy Linn in Marion Co, VA (later part of West Virginia). The eleven children of Alexander and Nancy were born in Marion Co, but at least three of the boys moved to Cass Co, Nebraska by 1883. Line Num.	Paternal Ancestor & Line Description
A36	Alexander McAllister was born about 1740. Some researchers indicate that he was born at sea and it has been said that his Mother may have died on the way to America. It is possible that his father was Alexander McAllister as there were two Alexanders on the 1783 Tax List in Washington Co., PA. They were either from Scotland or Ireland and arrived at Philadelphia or Baltimore. No doubt they migrated across PA, NJ, or MD to Western PA after the American Revolution. According to stories, many believed Alexander had several siblings. If so, some of the McAllister brothers would be involved in the American Revolution being of the right age. Alexander wrote his Will on 7 Dec 1800, and died before 24 Mar 1801. He was married about 1765 to Amey/Amy who was possibly his second wife. Estimated birth dates of his children are: Jane (1765), married to Mr. Calhoon before Dec 1800; William (24 May 1767, d. 24 Apr 1845), married about 1791 to Hannah Patterson, (b. 25 Dec 1770, d. 24 Nov 1837); Alexander, (1769); Hannah (1771); and James, (1780). As the 1790 Federal Census lists one additional male over/16, it may be possible that there is another son, perhaps David (1774). By 1798, Alexander McAllister moved from Chartiers Twp., Washington Co., to Moon Twp., Allegheny Co. in PA where he purchased 424 acres of land called the "Hills" along the bend of the Ohio River. Most of the known descendants of Alexander are from his second child, William. Family tradition says that William moved to a homestead in 1802 six miles east of Leechburg, Allegheny Co., now Armstrong Co. An abstract of a letter written in 1915 by J. T. Montgomery reads as follows: "The old log home where they lived still remains. It was built about 1790 by a man named Thomas and used as a tavern when teams took the place of railroads from Kittanning to Indiana, PA." On 16 Jun 1820, William purchased 325 acres of land in Allegheny Twp., Armstrong Co. He and his wife, Hannah, sold the land in 1824 to their son James and his wife Lydia. A detailed account of Alexander and William McAllister can be found on page 170 of the December 2001 CMA Journal. Migration: /PA-Allegheny-Elk=Pittsburg=Brandy Camp/IL-Champaign. A44	Alexander McAllister was born ca 1796 in NC and married Elizabeth ???, also a native of NC, who was born ca 1814. This couple moved westward, with Alexander ultimately dying sometime after 1870 in IL. Their six children were George Washington, Alexander, Darcas Jane, Samuel, Fannie, and Rachel were born between 1832 and ca 1848. We mostly know about their son George W. who was born ca 1832 in TN and married Amanda Wilson on 10 Mar 1852 in White Co., TN. We know from the 1870 Census of Simpson Co., KY that they emigrated from Tennessee to Kentucky between 1867 to 1869. The first six of their children were enumerated in this 1870 census. A family bible named fifteen children born to George and Amanda including: William (b. ca1936) and m. Sarah Goostree; Sarah E. (b. ca 1859); George W. (b. ca 1861) and m. Pearl McDonald; James M. (b. ca 1865); John Clinton; Robert L.; E.; Green; Septimus; Florence; Francis; Jesse; Larry/Harry; and Cora. George later married Sarah Lewis who brought her two daughters to the marriage. Charles and family came to the US after living in Carrichfergus, County Antrim, Ireland. They lived and owned land in the southern part of Lancaster Co, PA on the Octoraro River in Little Britain Township. In 1754 he sold that land and moved to Coddle Creek, NC (just south of Mooresville). Their daughter Margaret and husband Samuel Gingles lived and are buried there in the Coddle Creek Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church cemetery. Charles then moved back north to Fairfield, PA, the outskirts of what is now Gettysburg. Their children were, Mary, Margaret, Alexander, John and James. Sons Alexander and James are recognized as Patriots of the Revolutionary War by DAR and SAR. The family Cemetery is on the grounds of Black's Presbyterian Church, Belmont Road, Gettysburg, PA. N06	Neil McCallister was born 1693 in the Colony of Pennsylvania. In 1738 “Neal McCallister” acquired 230 acres on Conewago Creek in Donegal Township which was primarily a Scots-Irish settlement. Neil and his wife Jane (possibly Mary Jane 1698 PA–1758 PA) were married in 1717 and had three boys: James (b. 1718 Lancaster Co, PA; d. 1771 Orange Co, NC); John (b. 1720 Chester, PA; d. 18 July 1768 Orange Co, NC); and Neil Jr. (dates unk.). Neil Sr. prepared his will in 1751 in which he bequeathed his plantation to Neil Jr., although his death did not occur until 5 Dec 1757. Neil Sr., a Presbyterian, was buried in Derry Township, Lancaster Co, PA. James was the first to leave home, and likely used the “Great Valley Road” to reach Orange Co, NC where tax records show he had purchased 276 acres in 1752. Other records show that James had a son named Neil (b. abt 1739), who received 200 acres from his father in 1769 and inventoried his father’s estate in 1771. Second son, John, left home about 1761 and may have worked as a survey chain carrier in Frederick Co, VA in 1762. After the French & Indian war ended in 1763, the “Great Valley Road” reopened. Records in 1764 show that John purchased 200 acres in Orange Co, NC. John registered 200 acres in 1768 on Eno River near a large Scots-Irish community. In 1768 John purchased 300 acres near his brother James. A will recorded in 1768 in Orange Co, NC by John names sons James & Joseph, daughters Margaret Patton, Sarah, Mary, Martha, Jeales, Elizabeth, and wife Rosannah (expecting). Rosannah filed her will in 1769 (a year before her death) and named daughters Jane (born 1769 after John’s death), Jeals, Elizabeth (step dau.), Mary and son Joseph. W15	William McAllister. William and Elizabeth Garland McAllister were the W15 line progenitors. William was born in VA and died in 1764/65. They lived in Louisa Co., VA, when it was a much larger VA county. Their children were: John, Garland (b. about 1759 in NC), Mary, James, Ann, William, Alexander, and Nathaniel. There are certainly hundreds of descendants of this line that are not yet identified. The DAR shows Elizabeth Garland McAllister (b. about 1700 in New Kent Co., VA; d. Nov 1781 in Trinity Parish, Louisa Co., VA) as a patriot in the Revolutionary War. Her service is shown on the DAR website as "FURNISHED SUPPLIES, NOV 1781, LOUISA CO." Son Garland McAllister married Sally Banks in 1784 in Granville Co, NC. Garland is also recognized as a Revolutionary War patriot by the DAR. Garland's will is dated 11 Oct 1784 and it states that his wife is pregnant at the time which we believe refers to their son Garland Jr., who later married Drucilla Flowers. Garland and Drucilla had eleven children and moved at some point to TN which is where they were living when they died. This old Virginia family line may be merged into one or more lines, or they merged into W15, as more information becomes available. Migration: /VA-Louisa. [153 descendants] UPDATE Oct 2023.
